GENERAL INFORMATION FOR PROSPECTIVE DIRECTORS

The GBBR seeks to recruit capable and responsible persons as Board Members (Directors) who are committed to its vision, mission and good governance. It seeks to have diverse members and to have a variety of skills and experience. The Board is comprised of a minimum of (9) members and a maximum of (15) members. Nomination of new Directors shall be governed by the GBBR's Recruitment and Nomination Policy.

Selection Process: the GBBR Governance Committee shall review all written Expressions of Interest, vet and meet with prospective candidates. All prospective volunteers will be contacted with the Committee's decision; selected candidates will confirm their wish to stand for election and that slate of candidates will be published in the Agenda for the next Annual General Meeting.

Expectations: new Directors shall sign an Agreement, outlining their understanding of the expectations for volunteers, code of conduct, and related responsibilities. This includes attendance at monthly meetings and participation in a subcommittee of interest to them.

Orientation: Each volunteer will receive a GBBR Binder to include information about UNESCO world biosphere reserves, GBBR's Constitution and Bylaws, Strategic Plan and Annual Budget. Relevant policies, list of committees, and Board member contact information will be provided, along with AGM minutes and previous Board minutes. They will be invited to meet with the Executive Director and other staff to learn more about the operations and programs of GBBR.

Information about Georgian Bay Biosphere Reserve available at www.gbbr.ca

Information about GBBR's "State of the Bay" available at www.stateofthebay.ca

Information about GBBR's "Amazing Places" available at www.visitamazingplaces.ca

Term: the term of office for directors shall be three (3) years terminating at the third annual meeting following their election as Director of the Corporation. Directors, subject to election, may serve a maximum of nine (9) years as a Director of the corporation.

Executive: the positions for officers include Chair, Vice-Chair, Secretary and Treasurer. The Board elects these positions on an annual basis.
